JAMES S. GWIN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

On November 2, 2010, the parties to this suit held a telephone status conference with the Court. The Court GRANTS the parties' request for a two-day extension to file the joint pre-trial order; such order must now be filed by November 10. The Court also ORDERS that motions in limine be filed by November 8 and that responses to such motions be filed by November 11. The Court also notes that if either party desires a hearing on pending Daubert motions that such hearing must be requested in writing by November 4.

During the conference, the Court also addressed the Defendants' second motion to preclude. [Doc. 127.] The Court construes that motion as a motion to compel and consistent with its earlier oral ruling, ORDERS the Plaintiffs to produce: (1) financial statements, tax returns, and other documentation regarding the check cashing businesses of Plaintiff Russ; and (2) as to Plaintiff Smith, mortgage documents, mortgage refinancing applications and denials, the identity of the
